

DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF ANDERSON COUNTY

The Development Corporation of Anderson County (DCAC) is a public/private 501(c) 6 non-profit economic development organization. The DCAC was organized to engage in community activities that promote and support economic development activities in Anderson County.

GOALS

1. Develop a robust, diversified, and sustainable economy
2. Attract high quality, primary, Tier 1 and Tier 2 industries
3. Diversify the County's employment and tax base
4. Provide training for all sectors of our labor force
5. Enhance training that meets the needs of all job creators
6. Preserve/enhance lifestyle amenities, parks, and sports venues

The County Director of Economic Development is the designated director and President of the DCAC. The remaining directors are appointed by County Council.

By working together, investors in the DCAC create an economic effect that will bring positive impact to the businesses and residents of Anderson County.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to encourage and enhance an environment and unified voice that promotes job creation, enhanced quality of life, and workforce development across Anderson County.

VISION STATEMENT

Our vision is to enhance the creation and diversification of sustainable jobs and capital investment in Anderson County.
